The critically acclaimed Dark Sessions series reached its third volume with another deep and dirty excursion into the murky depths of the tech trance genre.

This time Discover's very own Chris and Matt Kidd take up the mixing reins guiding us through tracks and mixes from the artists including of Askew, Maguire, Foley and Tyas with a couple of exclusives from the DJ's themselves making this about as fresh as it gets.

Hints of trance melody punctuate the mayhem and give this album a perfect balance between trance and techno which is exactly what this sub genre is all about!!

This is sleazy dance music – occasionally aggressive, sometimes uplifting and always suitable for the darkest corners of the sleaziest discos...

This is Dark Sessions....
